

THE STAR'S DAILY PICTORIAL PAGE

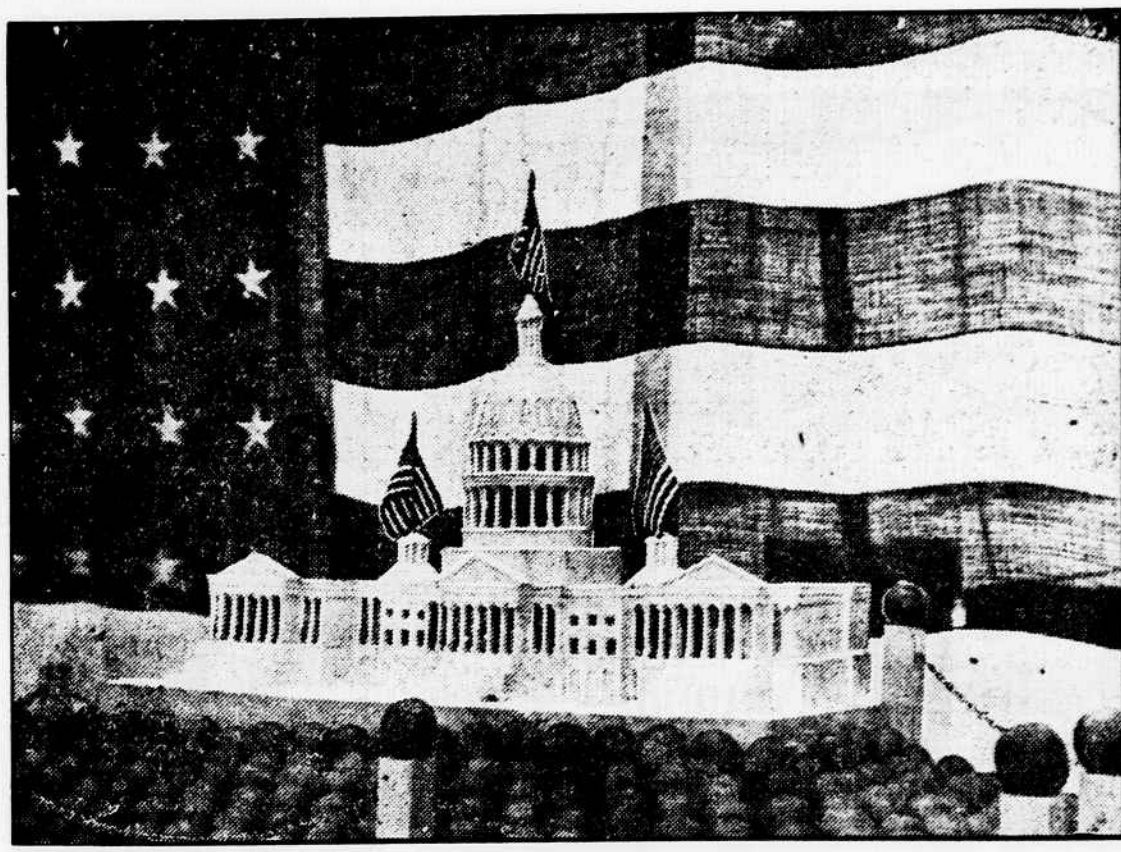

THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON, D. C., MONDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1922.

Thomas Fields, senior national vice commander of the National Disabled Soldiers' League, sails for France to place a wreath on tomb of unknown soldier in Paris on Armistice day. He will also take a wreath to Plymouth, England.
Copyright by Keystone.

Past and present prime ministers of Great Britain, Lloyd George and Bonar Law, received in America this morning, shows English leaders en route to parliament.
Wide World Photo.

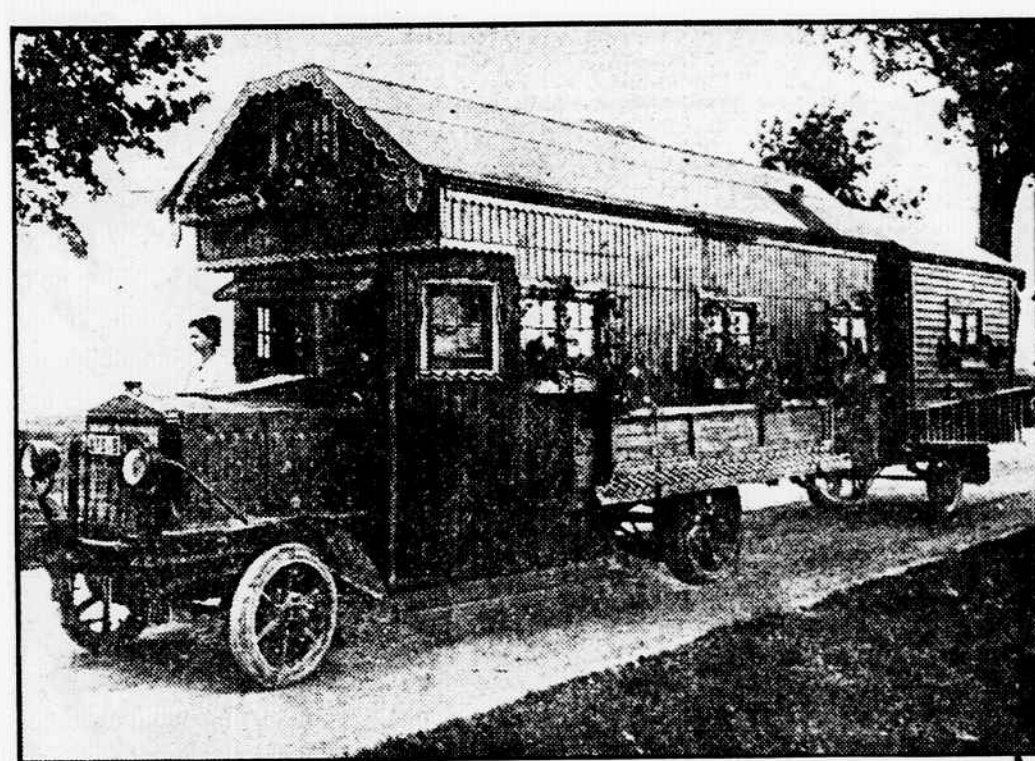

Miniature of the United States Capitol travels about the west as a novelty for those who have never visited Washington. The "Capitol" was constructed at San Bernardino, Calif., and is being exhibited in many cities.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

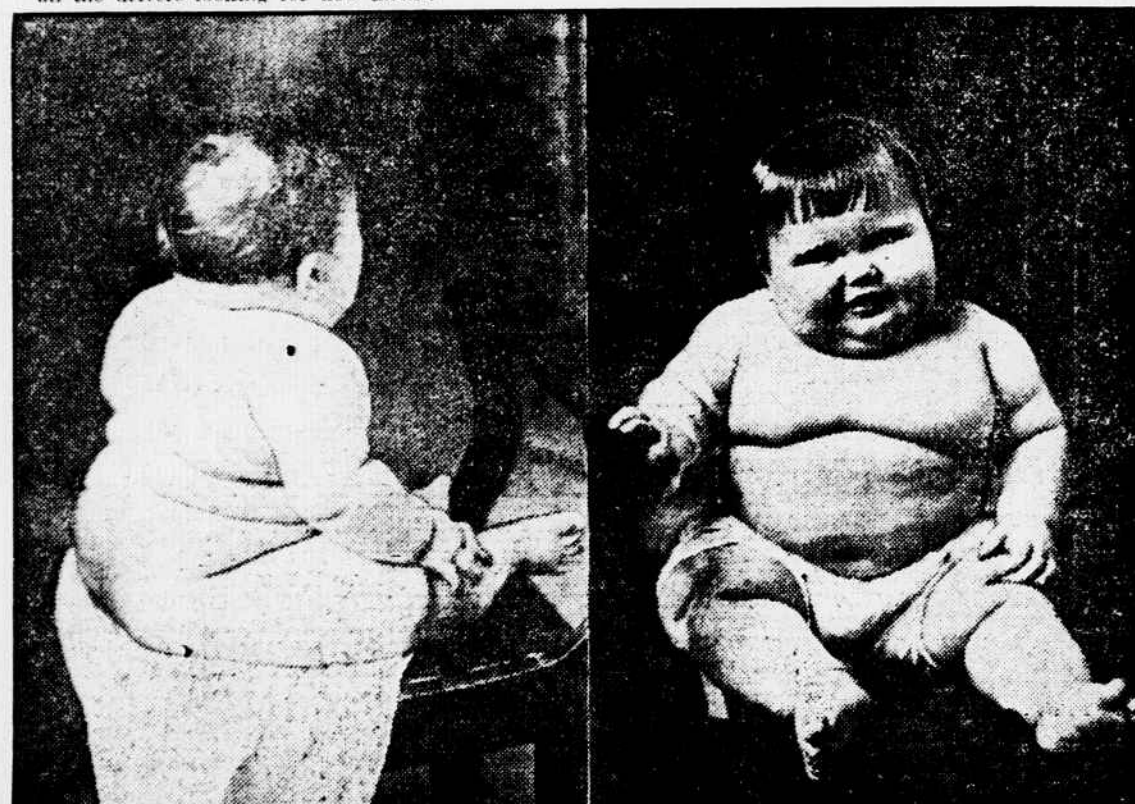

Fair sex of Chicago will soon drive their own elks. Keeper Parker of the Zoo is "breaking" the animals, and he claims that by spring he will have enough good, steady elks to satisfy all the drivers looking for new thrills.
Wide World Photo.

Farman Goliath plane in which French pilots, Bossoutrot and Drouhin, set new record for long flight. They remained in the air for 34 hours, 14 minutes and 71.5 seconds, landing safely.
Wide World Photo.

Impoverished Austrian nobleman, Franz von Schlechteithner, builds himself a combined home and candy store, places it on wheels and travels through Europe. The store is in the trailer.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

This six-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McClung of Bernice, La., weighs forty-five pounds and is forty-two inches in height. And she tipped the scales at only six pounds when she was born. The baby has the development of a three-year-old.
Central News Photo.

Miss Elsie K. Grieser, the first woman to go through the Panama canal in a canoe, making the trip in fifteen hours. She is the sister of the United States director of athletics of the Panama canal, H. K. Grieser.
Wide World Photo.

The classic coiffure, direct from Paris. Greek simplicity is the last word in the French capital, according to latest information.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

Navy day meant rest for this gob of the U. S. S. Wyoming, anchored in the North river, New York. Brother gobs supplied the lily to the "rest in peace" layout.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

First photo on communist riot in Berlin, when six were killed and sixty wounded. Photo shows communist beating up a reactionary student outside the University of Berlin.
Copyright by P. & A. Photos.

Knicker came into popularity some time ago, and they are much worn for sports. This newest woolen suit has all the tints of autumn.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.